

TRUSTEE & BOARD OPPORTUNITIES

VOLUNTEER ROLES SPRING 2024

YOUR LOCAL THIRD SECTOR NEEDS YOU!

Make a huge positive impact in your local community by volunteering as a charity trustee, committee member or undertaking a role on a Board in Aberdeen.

Give your time & skills: Volunteer as a Board trustee in Aberdeen

Make a difference in your local community

Volunteering as a charity trustee, committee member or undertaking a role on a Board can be a transformative opportunity both for the individual and the wider community.

Why volunteer as a Board Trustee in Aberdeen?

By lending your expertise and dedication as a volunteer in Aberdeen you can play a pivotal role in shaping the direction and impact of local third sector organisations, working toward ensuring effective governance, sustainable growth and positive impact.

The difference made as a result of lending your time and experience extends beyond the boundary of the organisation itself. Your involvement and contributions will result in real change within Aberdeen's communities as we work towards ensuring our city is a fair and inclusive place for all to live, where voices from all demographics can be heard.

Serving as charity trustee, or taking on another Board role, also offers you a platform for personal growth and fulfilment. Through leadership, decision-making, and strategic planning, volunteering can help in further developing invaluable skills that enrich both your professional and personal life. This dual impact underscores the significance of volunteering in Aberdeen; by empowering individuals to make a tangible difference, a stronger, more resilient community can be realised for all.

Aberdeen benefits hugely from the contribution of the amazing people who regularly volunteer across the city – all help makes a real difference and is always greatly appreciated. As well as the opportunities listed in this document, there are a vast number of other ways you can contribute your time and skills across our diverse third sector.

We update our volunteer listings on a regular basis, you can find details of the latest roles at volunteeraberndeen.org.uk and acvo.org.uk/volunteer.

Charity Trustees

Aberdeen in Recovery

We are now looking to find talented, passionate and skilled people to fill some vacant seats on our Board of Trustees to help us grow and develop our innovative and solution focused new charity. This is a unique opportunity to help lay the foundations to ensure AiR has a long-term future as a charity with solid processes in place to ensure it meets its mission of; "To be a bridge from 'dependence' to 'independence' for the individual seeking to recover from problematic substance use and addictive behaviours". So, if you have lived experience, or a stakeholder interest, and a passion for recovery and are willing to give of yourself that another may learn, please get in touch with the AIR team.

Committee Members

Talkable

Talkable offers a talkline to anyone affected by panic or anxiety. We are looking for committee members to help run the organisation as we continue to grow and provide ever more vital support to people.

Talkable is a not for profit that is hoping to delve into the charity sector so any charity knowledge would be an advantage. We are in the mental health sector so any mental health knowledge would also be an advantage. We meet every fortnight over Microsoft Teams and the meeting usually lasts an hour.

We are looking for standard Committee Members, a Chairperson, Secretary and Treasurer.

Find out more at <https://bit.ly/talkable-committee>

Board Trustees

VSA

VSA is looking for Trustees to join its Board. This is an exciting opportunity to contribute to a historic charity with a formidable reputation and to help the Board build a long-term plan. VSA has over 150 years' experience of delivering social care in Aberdeen, to vulnerable people, adults and older people with learning difficulties and mental health needs. We have grown to be a major employer with an accredited Skills Qualification Centre. VSA has a strong corporate and community volunteering tradition.

We particularly want to hear from people with a medical background, or current skills in the following: charity & company law, complex learning & behavioural education/social care and environmental/social governance.

Find out more at <https://bit.ly/vsa-trustee>

Volunteer Trustees

Zero Waste Aberdeen

We are a young democratically run organisation that needs to grow. At the moment we are a small group working at projects that reduce waste and we intend that Aberdeen and Shire become zero waste areas. That is, that everything we use becomes part of a circular economy and is not discarded needlessly to be tipped or burned.

Our next step then, is for more 'Trustees' to join with us to take on an officer of the board role, or to become an ordinary member and help steer the way forward to a successful reduction of waste to zero.

About ACVO - Aberdeen's Third Sector Interface

ACVO (Aberdeen Council of Voluntary Organisations) is the Third Sector Interface (TSI) for Aberdeen.

We have over 20 years' experience working in the city as the central hub of knowledge relating to the local third sector which is made up of community groups, voluntary organisations, faith and equalities groups, charities, social enterprises, co-operatives, community interest companies, mutuals, housing associations and self-help groups.

Through our various strains of work we actively facilitate, support and promote volunteering; enable charitable organisations to develop and thrive through governance and funding support; represent the voice of Aberdeen's third sector at a local and national level; play a strategic role in third sector involvement with community planning, health and social care integration and in responding to local needs and outcomes; build capacity and provide platforms to celebrate and highlight achievements.

The work we do is reflected in our organisational values which are central to our decision-making processes and are incorporated into everything we do, namely:

- We put the Third Sector first
- We empower communities
- We act on lived experience
- We demand equality
- We stand up for those who need help most

Through our various strands of work, we actively support and promote the work of Aberdeen's Third Sector. Our Statement of Values runs through everything we do - read it here.
